The Albia Police Department and the Monroe County Sheriff's Department are conducting a homicide investigation.

On February 5, 2011, at 12:11 p.m., the Monroe County 911 Center received a 911 call reporting a shooting at 113 Linden Lane in Albia, Monroe County, Iowa.

Responding authorities found a white male adult, later identified as Gary Davis, 60, of Albia, suffering from multiple injuries.

Gary Davis was transported to the Monroe County Hospital where he was pronounced dead.

At 1:03 p.m., law enforcement arrested Richard J. Davis, 73, of Albia, on the charge of Murder in the First Degree.

Richard Davis and Gary Davis were brothers.

Richard Davis is currently in custody at the Monroe County Jail in Albia.
